

PROHIBITION AS DRASTIC AS RUSSIA'S FACES ENGLAND

London, March 30.—Prohibition as drastic as that prevailing in Russia today, faces the United Kingdom. "Press discussions of the better sent by David Lloyd George, the chancellor of the exchequer to the ship owners federation, comes successfully in point of interests with the news of the sinking of the British liner Falaba by a German submarine with the loss of more than 100 lives. The chancellor in his letter said: "We are fighting Germany, Austria and drink and so far as I can see greatest of these three deadly foes is drink," and added that he had a growing conviction that only the severest method would be of avail in dealing with it. The employers are backing what Mr. Lloyd George terms "root and branch action" even to the extent of promising to send their own wine cellars and to prohibit the use of intoxicants at their clubs, while labor leaders are equally anxious for the institution of the home prohibition measure. Great Britain is smoldering in anger over the torpedoing by a German submarine of the steamships Falaba and Aquila, but confidence is expressed that the latest outbursts of under sea activity will have no effect on the movements of British ships. Reports from Petrograd say the capture of German documents show that Field Marshal von Hindenburg attached great importance to the German offensive movement in the region of the Niemen river.

MEXICANS VIOLATE NEUTRALIZED TOWN

WARN AMERICANS TO LEAVE NAGO

Brownsville, Texas, March 30.—Gen. Frederick Funston arrived here today from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, to watch over the border situation during the Villa attack on Matamoros.

Washington, March 30.—President Wilson told callers today that he believed the administration was doing everything possible to protect Americans along the Mexican border. A suggestion that General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, might be sent to Brownsville to stop the fighting near the border at Matamoros, was met with a statement by the resident that there was no plan for that.

Washington, March 30.—Nothing reached the state department today to confirm yesterday's report that Zapata forces were about to evacuate Mexico City again and that General Obregon, the Carranza chief, would reoccupy the capital.

Villa's Men Likely To Be Hemmed In

Brownsville, Texas, March 30.—Back last Saturday, are likely to have been fighting up and down today between Villa's and Carranza forces around Matamoros and no indications that fighting soon would be resumed. Villa forces now around Matamoros after their unsuccessful attack on the south.

Three Batteries Of Artillery To Border

Washington, March 30.—Three batteries of the Third field artillery were on their way today to Brownsville from San Antonio and a regiment of infantry was being held in readiness at Texas City to move there on a moment's notice. Orders to the troops had gone from the war department in response to the suggestion of Major General Funston, commanding the American forces on the border, who has gone to Brownsville to assume command of the situation.

These precautions were deemed necessary to impress upon the commanders of the Mexican forces fighting at Matamoros that firing across the border, thus endangering American lives will not be permitted. Assurances had been given, however, by the Carranza and Villa agencies here that firing into the Texas city would not be allowed.

Continued, U. S. March 30.—The leaders in the senate today voted to schedule for consideration today for final consideration today in both houses on report of the conference committee.

EITEL'S ACTIONS ARE GUARDED AS HOUR OF LIMIT DRAWS NEAR

Newport News, Va., March 30.—German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich lay quietly at her dock today with smoke lazily pouring from one funnel with no evidence of any intention to dash through the fan of hostile cruisers off the Virginia capes. There seemed no doubt that the limit of her stay was hourly drawing to a close but the time still was guarded as a strict secret. The battleship Alabama arrived in Hampton Roads and while the authorities were silent as to circumstances which actuated the government in sending a warship here it seemed apparent that the purpose was not to protect the Prinz Eitel within the three mile limit as had been suggested.

Claim Merchant Ships Supplying Warships
Marine men here assert that one reason for the presence of the Alabama is to see to it that British merchant ships which leave almost daily do not carry fuel to the allied warships off the capes. Scores of men at the docks here claim that British merchant ships after taking cargo and coaling their bunkers have taken on deck loads of coal as would not be needed for an overseas voyage. Marine men also insist that the allied warships frequently have been within the three mile limit at night and that one of the ships ventured within the capes last week.

VON KLUCK INCURS KAISER'S DISPLEASURE

London, March 30.—General von Kluck, the German commander who led the advance into France, according to travelers from Berlin, was wounded while recklessly inspecting trenches at the most dangerous point on the line, after a stormy interview with Emperor William, says an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express. It is learned from the same source, that the opinion is expressed in Berlin that as the result of the accident the emperor will entrust the command of von Kluck's army to Prince Eitel Friedrich.

Announcement that General von Kluck had been wounded was contained in an official statement issued yesterday by the German war office. It was said his condition was not serious.

"Apostle" Free Will Tour Ohio For Cult

Alliance, March 30.—Following his release last night from the Alliance City prison, Percy A. George, alleged high priest of the "Church of the Kingdom of God," announced that he intends to tour Ohio in the interest of the cult of which he is the self-styled "apostle." The authorities have tacitly admitted in ability to make out a case against George in connection with the death of Anna Tamm, 23, an inmate of the "Brotherhood Home."

BULGARIA'S CONTINUED NEUTRALITY IS SOUGHT

Paris, March 30.—The Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency declares he has received from diplomatic sources confirmation of the report that Field Marshal von Hindenburg has been authorized to ask Attorney General A. V. L. to offer Bulgaria the use of Sofia state that Bulgaria is holding up shipments of German artillery and large quantities of ammunition destined for Constantinople.

LATEST PICTURE OF GERMAN AMBASSADOR

Count J. H. von Bernstorff, leaving state department.

This picture of the German ambassador to the United States was snapped a few days ago as he left the state department from a diplomatic errand pertaining to the sinking of the William B. Franke by the German cruiser Eitel Friedrich. It is said that the ambassador would be recalled, but this, however, was emphatically denied by the count.

LOST LIFE SAVING CAT

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—Lemuel T. Rathell, 55, a wealthy oyster dealer, died last night from injuries received in rescuing a kitten from the slippery ridge of the glass skylight above his office along the Delaware river front. SYDNEY AT MONTEVIDEO

Montevideo, Uruguay, March 30.—The Australian cruiser Sydney, the warship which destroyed the German cruiser Emden in the Indian ocean last November, left port today. She came in yesterday.

During the months of February the Sydney was reported as cruising in the Atlantic searching for the German cruiser Karlsruhe and as going up the Amazon river on the same errand.

New York, March 30.—A receiver for Oscar Hammerstein, the impresario, was appointed by United States District Court here today. The action resulted from an equity suit brought by the American Seating company, described as creditors.

MAKE SLIGHT PROGRESS IN RAISING SUBMARINE F-4

Honolulu, March 30.—Efforts to locate and raise the missing U. S. Submarine F-4, which disappeared Thursday with twenty-one men, met with further difficulties early today. Lines from the dredger California, reported to have caught on some mass on the floor of the harbor entrance, gave way today. According to the report from the California, the lines were cut cleanly as if sawed off by scraping against some hard mass.

Replying to urgent inquiries by Rear Admiral Blue yesterday, Lieut. Smith commanding the searching party, reported that the water about her varied in depth from 43 to 60 fathoms.

ASSEMBLY MAY NOT TAKE ACTION NOW ON LIQUOR LEGISLATION

Columbus, March 30.—Representative Lovett, of Adams today made what is considered the first public statement from the Republican side of the legislature that liquor legislation is needed or even demanded generally from this assembly. Addressing the house temperance committee, which was considering several liquor decentralizing bills, Representative Lovett said:

"I have serious doubts whether this legislature can pass any measure which will be any improvement on the present license law." Mr. Lovett is classed as a strong "dry" advocate. He added that he doubted whether the legislature at this session actually will pass any decentralizing measure. Many other Republicans hold the same belief but fear to express it, Mr. Lovett declared. Neither the liquor nor the anti-liquor interests are asking decentralizing of the present license system, he asserted.

WILLIS URGES ACTION ON PARTY MEASURES

Columbus, March 30.—Governor Willis spent half the morning today conferring with Republican leaders of the house and senate over pending legislation and urging them to hurry the big administration bills to an early vote. Legislators said after talking with the governor the tentative for ending the active session mentioned during the conference was April 17, two weeks from next Friday.

HONOR PAID MEMORY OF EDWARD W. HANLEY

Dayton, March 30.—St. Joseph's church was unable to contain the great number of friends who gathered to pay final respects to the late Edward W. Hanley, former chairman of the Democratic central committee of Ohio, whose funeral was held this morning. More than 150 floral pieces were received by the family and men prominent in state affairs were present for the obsequies. Many members of the legislature, the state central Democratic committee, Eagles and Elks from many cities were present. Senator Pomeroy of Ohio sent a beautiful floral piece, "proceeding against one, applying to protect his various enterprises from being sacrificed," former Governor Campbell.

SURVIVORS OF AQUILA ARE LANDED

London March 30.—The missing boat from the British steamer Aquila, sunk by a German submarine off the Presbreyshire coast, containing 15 members of the steamer's crew and two passengers, has reached safely. This is the fourth boat that put off from the Aquila after the submarine attack. It was believed up to the present time to have been foundered. The number of men now supposed to have lost their lives with the sinking of the Aquila is nine.

MURDERED DETECTIVE IS BURIED AT COVINGTON, KY.

The investigation into the shooting at Silver Grove, Ky., last Thursday night, of C. & O. Detective Leslie D. Johnson, who has since died of his wounds, is said to lead away from the theory of traps or hoboes.

Officers engaged on the case all express the opinion that Johnson was shot by the same gang of car thieves who murdered Detective Cleveland Kemp in the same yards last June. Thomas and Fred Yates, who were arrested near the scene of the Johnson shooting for trespassing, have given officers some valuable information that may help materially in running down Johnson's slayer. Two other arrests were made Monday some miles from Newport that may also lead to some startling developments. Coroner Digby and others working on the case have heard some sensational statements which, while purely circumstantial as regards the murder, are throwing considerable light on the question as to the identity of the murderer.

The funeral of the murdered detective took place Tuesday from his home in Covington, Johnson was to have been promoted shortly because of his efficiency. Governor McCreary, of Kentucky, has been asked to authorize the payment of a reward for the capture of the murderer.

The post-mortem conducted by Dr. Young developed that had the assassin's bullet gone but a small fraction of an inch lower, Johnson would not have been fatally injured. As it was, the lower portion of the frontal lobe of the brain was only slightly torn by the 32-caliber bullet of the car thief. The injury was slight, but it was sufficient to cause death.

One story told the officials yesterday was to the effect that near the Silver Grove yards, the car thieves have a large cache, where stolen plunder in the shape of shoes, clothing, hams, bacon, gloves and other merchandise is hidden until such time as it can be disposed of without fear of detection. It is said that most of it is shipped by way of the river.

The guests were invited to the dining-room, which was beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations. A delicious free course dinner was served after which the president, Mrs. Lucy Whitefield, in a neat little speech, presented each with a birthday present. Those present were: Miss Emma White, Mrs. Lucy McConnell, Lucy Whitefield, Daisy Kinney, Bessie Lewis, Berlie Johnson, Lela Moore, Ethel Turner, Ada Woods, Florence Parker and Edith Baker. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing them many more happy birthdays.

It's a Good Thing

A young man brought one of our "Ideal Pocket Savings Banks" with his three days' savings of quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies to our office. We opened it and he had almost $3.00 which he deposited on his savings book.

He said, "It is a good thing. If I had not had the bank, I would have spent the money. As it was, I showed the small change in to the bank and I saved it."

If the small bank is a good thing for him, it will be good for you. You can start today by leaving a dime with us and taking the bank with you. When you return the bank to be opened and your savings are credited on a pass book, we return the dime to you.

The bank is little but it helps.

Chillicothe After The Old Canal Bed

The Chillicothe News-Advertiser says:

"A proposition which has some of the most influential citizens behind it will be presented to the Chamber of Commerce at its next meeting. This proposition is that the city of Chillicothe secure the old bed of the canal, within the city limits, in order to control and to benefit the city."

"The men who are behind the movement think that the city should own the canal and ultimately make of it a beautiful boulevard or open driveway, adding greatly to the appearance of the city and to the convenience of all property owners along the canal. A number of prominent men and heavy taxpayers who have been asked their opinion on the matter are heartily in favor of it."

When to Paint

This spring perhaps you say: "I think my house can go another year without repainting."

Next spring the painter says: "It will take three coats to do a good job on your house—a year ago I might have done it with two."

Do you see the point? A coat of paint in time protects not only your house, but the paint that is already on it.

If the old paint is good white lead and linseed oil paint, it is worth saving. Rub it with your finger—if it dusts comes off, or if it shows no cracking or scaling, the old paint can be revived. The painter knows how to mix the new coat of Carter White Lead and linseed oil to unite with the old paint and make it stick to the wood tighter than ever.

If it does show cracking and scaling—then you are in for the costly job of removing it. You have had your lesson and don't need to be told the importance of "Purity First."

SAYS BIG TRUSTS ENDANGER LIBERTY

Washington, March 30.—The government's brief in the anti-trust suit to dissolve the International Harvester company was filed yesterday in the supreme court. It is largely directed toward combating the arguments advanced in the company's brief filed in support of its appeal after the district court for Minnesota had declared it a combination in restraint of trade and ordered its dissolution.

"If defendant's argument prevails," says the government brief, "if corporate combinations, however comprehensive, do not come within the purview of the act unless and only so far as they demonstrably 'abuse' their power—the inevitable result will be the removal of that great trust toward concentration which proceeded with ever accelerating rapidity until checked by the decision of this court in the North securities case."

Super-Combination of Metal Would Be Possible

"If makers of harvesting machinery may unite as here, why may not makers of every other species of machinery do likewise? And why may not all these lesser combinations be integrated into one super-combination of all the metal working industries?"

"What would prevent, indeed, the creation of combinations with power to control the market for every necessary of life—food, coal, oil, metal, textile, fabrics, etc., or alliances between all these combinations under the control of few great masters of industry?"

"The desire for promoters' profits, the desire to escape from the pressure of competition, the natural gravitation of power into the hands of the powerful, and the desire for more power which great power engenders—these motives would still be adequate to produce such concentration, even assuming that prices, etc., could be rigidly controlled.

Without Reasonable Check Would Imperil Liberty

"The anti-trust act—the work of perhaps the ablest judiciary committee that ever sat in either branch of congress—is the deliberate effort of conservative, clear-thinking men to place some reasonable check upon that liberty of combination, which, if permitted to the 'logical extreme' would in the end imperil liberty itself."

"The controversy in this case therefore, is fundamental. The question is: 'shall the competition system be continued or shall competition, not combination, be the law of trade?'"

The brief says that the defendants claim that while one time competitors controlling from 80 to 85 per cent of the trade in the United States in harvesting machines were combined in substantially the manner which the government contends, the object was not restraint of trade, but to promote foreign trade of the established domestic trade on a more economic basis. Upon these statements, the government says, and upon its good conduct the "whole defense rests."

Statistics are given to demonstrate that the harvester company "has retarded rather than accelerated the foreign trade in harvesting machines."

The government declares that three companies named by the defendant, its formidable competitors which have entered the field since its organization, "are practically negligible as factors in the harvesting machine business in the United States."

SAYS TURKISH DEFENSES HAVE PROVED EFFECTIVE

Bucharest, March 30.—(Via Paris)—Field Marshal von Der Goltz, the German military commander of Constantinople, interviewed by the Advertiser, declared his defenses of the Dardanelles had proved more effective than had been expected and that he now would affirm that the allied fleet would not force a passage.

"We await a new attack without fear," the field marshal is reported to have averred. "The more ships there are the better satisfied we shall be. We do not lack ammunition for Turkish factories supply us all we want. Turkish industry has been sufficiently developed to equip a fresh army of 500,000 which it will be easy to mobilize."

"Constantinople is calm and the sultan still is in the Bosphorus palace. Enver Pasha, minister of war, is most optimistic and we are convinced we shall win."

Field Marshal von Der Goltz has left Bucharest for Berlin.

TELLS OF CHASE BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—A Tholander, "Far miles she pursued the Paris, which put on a full head of steam. It was not until a British torpedo boat came to the rescue that the German undersea craft gave up the chase."

Captain Tholander said that all through the chase the Danish flag was flying from the mast of the Paris. Many floating mines were also sighted.

Formal Opening Of The Fashion Tonight

With its handsomely redecorated fixtures, an enlarged stock of attractive show windows and front, the fashion is now superbly ensconced in its new home, corner of Gallia and Gay street.

Formal introduction of the store will be conducted tonight (Tuesday) between the hours of seven and nine o'clock. Special musical selections will be rendered by Prof. Mastropaul's orchestra.

The evening will be made a gay and festive occasion.

Manager Kline has prepared an elaborate display of the latest fashions in women's wearing apparel and at the formal reception will give friends a peep of the many surprises he has in store for them. It will be the future policy of the store to carry a much larger stock than was previously carried owing to limited floor space. Late styles and fashions are to be found on display.

A cordial invitation is issued by the management for all to attend the reception tonight for an inspection and comparison of the goods.

A Remedy for Children— Kidney Trouble

I have a boy who had the bad wetting habit from infancy, and also had much trouble with his kidneys. Two years ago they became so bad, and having tried a great many remedies without relief, I consulted a doctor who advised me to try Swamp-Root. I obtained one fifty-cent bottle and he had not taken more than three-fourths of it when he became entirely well, and has been so ever since.

To any parent who has a child suffering from these troubles, I earnestly recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and consider it a wonderful medicine. Yours very truly,

L. A. GIBSON, Goodwater, Alabama. Sworn and subscribed to before me this 25th day of July, 1914. J. C. GIBSON, Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder. When written, be sure and mention the Portsmouth Daily Times. Regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

ASSETS $10,000 MORE THAN THE LIABILITIES

The assets of the East End Furniture company, which recently went into the hands of receivers, are over $10,000 in excess of its liabilities, according to a statement of the inventory and appraisal of the firm's property filed in common pleas court Tuesday afternoon by J. P. Purdon, one of the receivers. The assets were fixed at $12,068.85 and the liabilities $1,548.75. At the same time, it was announced that the appointment was a safe, conservative one, and was a fair estimate of the firm's present financial standing.

The appraisers were A. J. Puffer, J. C. Pool and John Voelker, who spent several days arriving at their figures.

HOW ZEPPELINES ATTACK A CITY

The flight of Zeppelin airships over Paris and the dropping of destructive bombs in the city and suburbs renews attention to these engines of war and sets the reading public to expect the long-threatened attack upon London. As a means of reconnoitering and as an aid to strategy, the Zeppelin's worth has been proved, but it has not yet shown its value as an engine of destructive warfare. The bombs used do not appear to be effective, though their shortcomings are probably due to the inexperience of air soldiers in directing fire at a city below.

TRAIN VICTIM PROVES TO BE JAMES E. CULP; HOME WAS ON DRY RUN

The young farmer who was missing underneath an N. & W. freight train just north of the Hear engine plant, last Saturday morning, proves to have been James Elmer Culp, aged 39 years, of Dry Run.

The body was identified at the Dasher morgue by the victim's father, Anthony Culp, and Andrew Smith, Union Mills storekeeper, Tuesday afternoon about 3:15. "That's him, sir, that's him," said the father the instant the shroud was lifted from the corpse and to make the identification all the more certain told of two gold teeth his son had and, incidentally, described the clothing in an adjoining room and the pearl handle knife in the possession of Acting Coroner John W. Byron.

It remained for Ben Hammond, a neighbor of the Culp family, to first identify the train victim. He no sooner saw the body when he declared it was that of Jim Culp whom he had known since he was a boy.

Undertaker Dasher called up Mrs. Elza Cook by telephone and she sent word to Mr. Culp, who lives on the Williamson place, Mounting a horse he galloped to town.

Mr. Culp said his son left home last Friday afternoon without telling anyone his destination. He had been some words with his mother a day or two before but did not think he meant to desert himself or that moment. He said he recently walked over the N. & W. to Vera and because he was an expert in catching trains felt an concern about him when he read of Saturday's accident in The Times and besides did not regard the description as that of his son. The young man was the fourth son in a family of nine children of whom the following seven survive: Mrs. Nellie Paul of Columbus, Mrs. Loris Duly of Columbus, Miss Martha Culp of Detroit, Alvin of Columbus, Amos of Windsor, Canada and Myrtle and Emma at home. He was married but divorced from his wife, nee Bertha George, who has since married Os. well Vanington. Three children born to them are all dead. Culp had in recent years been employed in the West and South but remained home this winter. Burial will likely take place in the Williamson cemetery.

Besides the usual baked articles, the committee will make a specialty of cottage cheese, mayonnaise dressing and meringues. West End families are requested to make donations of baked goods to the committee in charge.

FREE LOVE CULT COMES TO LIGHT IN YOUNG GIRL'S DEATH; ALLIANCE, O., AUTHORITIES PROBE "KINGDOM OF GOD" SECT

Miss Amy Tanner; home of the "Kingdom of God" sect in Alliance, O.; Rev. P. A. George.

The "Kingdom of God," a religious sect of twelve members, which has a "brotherhood home" in Alliance, O., is being investigated by authorities of that city as the result of the death last week of Miss Amy G. Tanner, a nineteen-year-old girl convert, under circumstances which aroused the suspicions of the police. The Rev. P. A. George, "interpreter of the voice of God" and leader of the cult, is under arrest.

The investigation has brought out the fact that free love is one of the important tenets of the "Kingdom of God" sect.

Clearing of the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Tanner hinges on the official chemical analysis at Columbus of organs removed from the girl's body at the autopsy.

It is Just Nature To Admire Babies

Our attractive nature leads us to love for the young infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is one before us. We know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood in a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the real helpful things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known many grateful mothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommend it to their own daughters. It is certainly most to what we mean by "Mother's Friend." They give us the full story of their own experience. As an interesting little book is mailed free upon application to Beal's Remedy Co., 85 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It refers to many other "let women like to read about." Get a recommendation of a bottle of "Mother's Friend" to-day and write for the book.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCK

New York, March 30.—Specialties were again the foremost features of today's active market, with numerous substantial gains. Amalgamated Copper sold above sixty-three in the final hour. The closing was irregular.

Conflicting conditions were reflected in the early market, the leaders reacting while specialties continued to forge ahead. Bethlehem Steel soared up to 91½ and over night gain of 4½ points and a new high record. Rock Island which displayed sudden animation and strength in yesterday's late dealings opened with a sale of a block of 5,000 shares at 28½ to 29½, a gain of 3½ points. Motor shares rose from 2 to 5 points. Canadian Pacific and its allied property, "Sea" were the only other railway issues to gain more than fractions. National Lead advanced four points but United States Steel was lower despite its high price for the current movement in London.

Dealings in the first hour were the largest for that period of any session since last July, but diminished toward midday. The highly speculative character of the market was indicated, however, by its extreme feverishness. Bethlehem Steel declined over five points from its top figure, but soon recovered much of its loss. Rock Island, concerning which there are rumors of a contest for control at the annual meeting, reacted 3 points and the specialties as a whole were inclined to ease off. All the standard stocks went materially lower, but hardened later when trading became more orderly. Bonds were steady.

The Movies

Mary Pickford in "Mistress Nell", Columbia Tonight

The popular Columbia was packed to the doors this entire afternoon with the friends of Mary Pickford who went to see her in "Mistress Nell", considered by many critics as her greatest success in motion pictures, and everybody was loud in their praise of her wonderful work in this beautiful story of Old England.

The story of "Mistress Nell" is too well known to the general public to require any review at this time, and those who miss this picture today, are certainly missing a rare treat in pictures.

Doors open this evening at 6:15 and the first show will begin promptly at 6:30, the second at about 8 and the third at about 9:30.

You had better come early for if all the friends of "Little Mary" come to see her this evening, she will certainly have "some big reception."

Tomorrow, Wednesday, Manager Tynes announces another Famous Players headliner in "One Of Our Girls", a beautiful and interesting military romance in five reels featuring Miss Hazel Dawn, who is recognized and considered as the most beautiful woman on the American stage.

Some four years ago, this little lady was induced to come to America from her home in England to play the title role in "The Pink Lady," and the newspapers all over the country commented upon her natural beauty and charm.

This is the first and only motion picture that she has appeared in up to this date and you can't afford to miss it.

The Arcana
Every day is feature day at the Arcana this week, starting with yesterday's program and ending with the greatest, the 101 Bison in three reels on Saturday.

Manager Potts should be congratulated upon his splendid booking of the highest grade motion pictures the world offers. The patrons of the Arcana not only see the best pictures and at 5 cents, but get to hear the finest piano player in this section of the country. If you are a patron of this theatre you know, if not, you should not miss hearing a real pianist.

"Girl of the Secret Service" is a thriller from start to finish and if you miss this big two-reel Gold Seal you miss a world beater.

Contractors Here To Go Over C. & O. Route

Prominent contractors from all parts of the United States flocked to Portsmouth Tuesday, their mission being to inspect the proposed route of the Chesapeake & Ohio Northern Railway from Seaside to Waverly, a distance of 28 miles. This is known as the first section of the new line to Columbus and a contract for building it will be awarded in Columbus within the next two weeks, it was announced Tuesday by Attorney Henry T. Bannan.

Climbing into automobiles that were in waiting for them, the contractors were driven over the site of the first section which goes from Seaside to Harrisonville, thence to a settlement called Waverly, and then into Waverly. The second section extends from Waverly to Circleville and the third from Circleville to Columbus.

Some time back the C. & O. officials received bids on the first section, but they were rejected because so many changes had been made in the right of way and in the way of grade crossings.

Tremper Bill Is Placed In Morgue

Columbus, Ohio, March 30.—By agreement with the author, the Tremper bill, granting banks immunity from liability for non-payment of checks through error, unless the depositor shall prove actual damages incurred, was recommended for indefinite postponement, which means the death of the bill, today by the senate committee on banks and saving societies.

CHILD BADLY BURNED

Falling back into a kettle of boiling hot water, Goldie, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knauth of the West Side, was badly burned Tuesday morning. Dr. Harry Rapp was called and dressed the child's burns.

Cliff Counts Found At N. Boston Home

After eluding the county authorities for three days, Cliff Counts was apprehended Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Smith at the former's home in New Boston. He was lodged in the county jail on a charge of cutting with intent to kill, it being alleged that he seriously cut and wounded Ed Conley at New Boston Saturday night. Counts made no resistance when the sheriff walked into his home and placed him in the custody.

Word reached the sheriff Tuesday morning that Counts had returned home, and acting upon the tip he hurried to New Boston. An affidavit was filed in Squire Hyron's court charging him with cutting with intent to kill, and he will be arraigned Thursday morning. His alleged victim is still reported in a dangerous condition.

OBITUARY

Tribute Of Regards

Times written by James Jones, D. D., and read at the funeral services of David B. Davis, at North church, March 30, 1915.

We are gathered together to pay our tribute of respect to a young man of gentle, tender, earnest, sweet character. The musician of the poet is older and more complex in his moral construction than is the average man. He is other and higher than even the orator and the preacher. The musician is a poet, and the poet is a musician; not in the mechanical sense of the construction of a hymn or of an oratorio. In that the poet may not be a musician and the musician may not be a poet, but in the secret and innermost recesses of the heart of the sciences the poet must be a musician and the musician must be a poet. In mechanical construction music and poetry hold relations to applied mathematics and they deal with numbers, relations and time. In their higher properties they relate to pure mathematics and they deal with ideas, beauty and purity. So long as the soul feeds upon the product of applied mathematics it feeds upon the cheaper and coarser materials, such as bank account, stock and exchange, profit and loss, and it runs on a dead level, unpoetic and unmusical. When the soul puts on its two magnificent wings, poetry and music, it rises up to the realm of infinite realities, and it feeds upon the pure and the divine, and waxes great; it throws out currents of influences which touch other souls, soothe, inspire, expand them, transform, transfigure them.

so that they see visions and hear voices which are invisible and unintelligible to all those who subsist on the lower and coarser material. For every one that askest receive, let him have that askest findeth? (Matt. 7:8) have a vaster sweep of meaning than some men think. We talk too readily and flippantly about things beyond our ken. We hold our little key in our hand with which to open the door of life to this and to bar it against the other just as our bigotry and blindness dictate, without giving thought to the density of the ignorance and the depth of the prejudice which hang over our vision and our heart because of which we are unable to judge the fitness or the usefulness for service in the hands of God, either in time or in eternity. The most and the best we can do is to read the simple Word of Truth in the light of increasing revelation. We talk about the being and the saving of the soul as if the soul were a product of our own making, or a community at our own disposal. It were wiser were we to try to discover the import in the words "planning" and "saving" and the soul. What is the soul? It is the ALL of men, and it is the all that can be saved or lost. How is that soul saved or lost? That soul may be frittered away, bit by bit, by disease, abuse and unhealthy food, as surely as he indulgence in extravagant and hideous sins. After awhile there is nothing left; the man has lost himself or given himself away. How may it be saved? It is nourished, enlarged, strengthened, purified by proper exercises induced in the virtue of Jesus. Christ and becomes so robust, strong and powerful that neither angels nor men can destroy it. "And no one shall be able to take out of my hands." It is in that light of soul expansion and redemption that I would ask you to look today at our departed friend. Probably few are the men in any community who, of equal age, have given to himself or to his soul better environments for growth and higher things for it to enjoy. I have rejoiced at seeing those marvelous powers within him striving for the mastery and winning the crown. He was a young man of tremendous soul energy, and every ounce of that energy devoted to the building up of himself, and by the building up of himself the building up of humanity and the Kingdom. With him there were no waste of energy or waste of attempt. His efforts counted in his own purpose which was united with or buried in the purpose of the Christ. He was truly a bright, clean young man at his best. Look at him.

End him present at all the services of the C. M. church on Long street, was leader of the children's choir, won four prizes with the children's choir in local contests, and a gold medal at the state contest, having been manager of the rolling led the union choir made up of children from all the Protestant churches of the city at the National Convention of Christian Endeavorers. That is giving the full measure pressed down. His system, already unbalanced, he fell a victim to the dread typhoid and returned to his parents' home. Before he had hardly and fairly got on his feet he began teaching music. He became instructor of music in Portsmouth and vicinity, and was much admired and respected. New Boston, Seaside, Wheelersburg and Porter township testify to his worth. He led the music at the Mundy church and later at the Methodist Street Baptist church. He was a regular worshiper at the Second Presbyterian church and press editor of its men's Bible class. That is work, and every ounce of it counting for men and for God.

And here is more of a similar evidence. In early youth he identified himself with the Holy O. M. church. He was a member of the Magnolia Lodge, No. 20, F. & A. M., at Columbus, member of the K. of P. Lodge at Harrisonville, of the W. of W. at Oak Hill. That demonstrates a soul all ablaze with work that counts in the building up of himself and the Kingdom.

He was an earnest, kind, sociable man, true to himself, to his community, to his church, and to his God. The earth has not closed over the form of any young man who was more devoted or consecrated. Our loss is great, and his gain is great.

Dr. W. E. Nichols

Stricken with heart trouble at 7 o'clock Monday night, Dr. W. E. Nichols, a well known practicing physician of Fullerton, and who had been located there nine years, was a corpse two hours later, passing away at 9 o'clock. Dr. Nichols apparently was in his usual good health Monday, and the news of his very sudden death came as a distinct shock to relatives and his many friends. Drs. M. W. Mead, A. E. Heyson and B. F. Bennett, who were summoned to the Nichols home Monday night, pronounced death due to heart trouble. When Dr. Meadows reached the home he found Dr. Nichols a desperately sick man and employed heroic measures to save his life. His heart was beating only faintly and death was inevitable unless his heart action could be stimulated without delay. Despite the efforts of the physicians Dr. Nichols became worse and soon passed away. Dr. J. S. Radin, of this city, was summoned, but Dr. Nichols died before he reached the home.

Dr. Nichols complained of having a pain around his heart. Monday and toward evening, when it grew worse, he was forced to take to his bed. The news of his death last night caused profound sorrow to permeate Fullerton, where he was known and respected by everybody.

Dr. Nichols was 39 years old and was a son of James Gilbert Nichols and Mrs. Martha Nichols, who reside at Lead, Ky., which is located about Tygart. He is also survived by his faithful wife, Mrs. Mildred Nichols, and one daughter, Miss Nettie Nichols, aged 14, and two brothers and eight sisters.

Dr. Nichols was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Greenup and was a member of the Woodmen of the World. He attended school in Lexington and later on graduated from a medical school in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Mary Brown

Miss Mary Brown, the 23-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Seaside, died this morning at their home. Miss Brown has been afflicted all of her life and death came as a relief to her sufferings. Her father is N. & W. station agent at that place and she has endeavored herself to every person employed on that division of the road. She bore her sufferings patiently and every one who knew her soon became attached to her. Mrs. H. E. Reed received the news of her death this morning.

Joseph H. Campbell

Joseph H. Campbell, 67, editorial writer for the Commercial Tribune, author of "Notes and Comments," and widely known newspaperman, died suddenly in the billiard hall of the Honing hotel on Lower Vine street, Cincinnati, shortly before noon Monday. "Uncle Joe," as the veteran paragrapher and philosopher affectionately was called, had seated himself in a chair to watch a game of billiards when the end came peacefully. Near him at the time was his intimate friend, Dr. Charles Mascheroff. The physician saw the veteran newspaperman's head nodding gently toward his breast as if he were falling asleep. But the experienced eye noted at once that something was wrong. A moment later Mr. Campbell was dead. Efforts that were made in the hope that there still might be a faint spark of life were without success.

Monday morning, when Mr. Campbell left home, he seemed to be in good health, although he complained of a slight "heartburn," an ailment new to him. After Coroner Foerster had been notified the body was removed to the home on Baker place of Attorney Frank Dinsmore, his son-in-law. Mr. Dinsmore is a former Portsmouth resident.

Mr. Campbell's wife died many years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank F. Dinsmore and Mrs. M. D. Burton, the latter of Mt. Washington.

"Uncle Joe" Campbell was loved and respected by thousands of Cincinnatians. He went to that city from Fronton, O., twenty years ago, after losing a large fortune in the iron business there.

Adam Overy

Adam Overy, aged 83, widely known as "Uncle Adam," died at 6:30 o'clock last night at his home at the corner of Fourth and Park avenues, after an illness due to bronchitis which had lasted since last November, a clean path, every foot of which advanced one of the deceased threw the balance in favor of the Grim Reaper. Mr. Overy became bedfast in December and his health was which measures the labors of one came peacefully last evening.

He became engaged in newspaper work, and from that time until his death he had been active in this field. As the editor of the "Notes and Comments" column in the Commercial Tribune, the home advice and dry humor which he meted out in his writings was read and appreciated by practically every reader of that paper.

In the last column of "Notes and Comments," which Mr. Campbell wrote, published in Monday's paper, on the day of his death, is one regarding a poem entitled, "What Is Time?" The poem reads:

What Is Time?

"I ask'd an aged man, a man of years,
Wrinkled, and cur'd and white
with hoary hairs:
'Time is the warp of life,' he said,
'O tell
The young, the fair, the gay, to weave it well.'"

"I ask'd a dying sinner, ere the stroke
Of ruthless death, 'Life's golden bowl had broke,'
I ask'd him, 'What is time?'
'Time,' he replied,
'I've lost it. Ah, the treasure,' and he died."

WORK IS BEGUN ON THE STEEL PLANT ADDITION

PLANT SECURED BY BOARD OF TRADE IS TO DOUBLE CAPACITY

So successful has been the galvanizing department of the Whitaker-Glossner Company's big plant in New Boston and which was placed in operation a few months ago, that this firm has completed arrangements to practically double the capacity of this department, and work started Monday on the addition.

The Whitaker-Glossner Company has awarded a contract to the Pittsburgh Construction Company for the building of an addition to the galvanizing plant. It will be 200 by 150 feet and will extend from Ohio avenue to West avenue. It is one of the largest contracts awarded by this company in recent years and coming at this particular time when so few plants are in operation, but alone, involving a mammoth contract, it will be learned of with much pleasure. It shows the real progressive spirit of those at the head of the company, which is operating one of the most magnificently equipped steel plants in the country.

Work has been started on the foundation of the new addition, which will be tacked on the west end of the present galvanizing department. This work will be done by the Whitaker-Glossner Company, and under their personal supervision. The Pittsburgh Construction Company will put up the building proper.

It will be recalled that the ground on which the present galvanizing plant stands was donated to the firm by the Board of Trade. It was erected in accordance with stipulations made by the Board of Trade when the ground was purchased and later turned over to the company.

The gift has soon borne golden fruit as the new addition will not only double the firm's capacity, but it will give it one of the largest and most modernly equipped plants of this character in the United States. Necessarily with its completion the working force of skilled mechanics will be easily increased. This department of the plant has run practically bang up since placed in operation, and with an immense addition added to it will be a model of its kind.

The steel plant is working steadily in practically every department and it is said will continue that way for at least three weeks.

Creditors Are Going After W. C. Evans

The Cincinnati Enquirer of local interest Tuesday said:

"Alleging that W. C. Evans, a merchant of Portsmouth, Ohio, had absconded and has become a fugitive, leaving numerous creditors holding the bag and his business in the hands of a receiver appointed by the State Court at Portsmouth, the Morris Allister Ball company, John A. Tolman & company, and the W. M. Hoyt company, all of Chicago, yesterday filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Evans in the United States District Court, and asked that a receiver be appointed immediately to take charge of the property now in the hands of the receiver appointed by the State Court."

"In the petition for the appointment of a receiver the creditors aver that the condition of Evans' affairs and business is such as to render it absolutely necessary that a receiver in bankruptcy be appointed. It is said that Edward Canning, acting as State Court receiver, has converted Evans' assets into cash, and that, as the alleged bankrupt had secretly removed a large portion of his assets, it is necessary that vigorous action be taken to apprehend the fugitive and recover the missing merchandise."

"The matter of appointing a receiver was immediately presented to Judge Hollister, and he appointed Arthur Bannan, of Portsmouth, to act in that capacity and directed him to take charge. His bond was fixed at $2,000. The court also ordered that service by publication be made upon Evans, directing him to appear on April 21."

"In their petition asking that Evans be adjudged a bankrupt the creditors set up claims on accounts for merchandise in the respective sums of $240.75, $169.52 and $125.49. It is charged that the respondent paid various sums to other creditors with intent to prefer them, but that the petitioners are not able to state to whom these preferences were given for the reason that Evans failed to keep proper books of account."

Mrs. O. T. Hamberlin, who has been ill the past two weeks, is slowly improving.

A Real Flesh Builder For Thin People

A New Discovery

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing, nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food didn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Omit the flesh cream rub-ons. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of these a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy fat stay there! fat should be the net result. Sargol cures your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—gives the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Fisher and Stretch Pharmacy and all other druggists in Portsmouth and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

One Feels Safe When He Chooses a Hudson

After all is said, that's the chief attraction men find in this Light Six.

HUDSON was the first of this new day type. Our engineering corps has had four years to perfect it.

Its designer is Howard W. Coffin, who stands foremost in his line. Any model of his inspires confidence.

It embodies HUDSON standards. It has HUDSON strength behind it. It stands for the climax in HUDSON achievement.

10,000 Road Records

Then 10,000 men have tried out this new HUDSON. Half of them bought last year's model, so the tests have covered two seasons.

These cars have been driven, under every condition, for some 25 million miles. And those tests have revealed no fault, no shortcoming.

Any owner you meet will pronounce this Light HUDSON his very ideal of a car.

Behind all this beauty, luxury and finish lies a proved-out car. All the refinements you see on the outside reflect care in the chassis.

You know that the HUDSON is right. It means a great deal to have 10,000 users vouch for a new-type car.

And HUDSON service goes with it. That means to all owners a ceaseless protection.

Please measure these things up.

What appeared, at first, to be only an "orderly retreat" for strategic reasons on the part of the flank of the Portsmouth bowling army, seems certain of a complete rout of the Portsmouth "Pin Zouaves" on the alleys at Peoria, Illinois, where the local bowlers stormed the trenches of the A. B. C. records and prize money.

Instead of a slashing victory and medals won, as so confidently predicted and actually expected, the little army of ten pin sharpshooters, according to authentic reports, is lying mortally wounded and bleeding on the plains of Peoria. Peoria's alleys raked by a hail of disappointment and defeat as the local gallants charged, sent them staggering back beneath the terrible onslaught. Instead of medals and spurs there is liable to be a court martial and disarmament of swords and the loss of honorary stripes. From Peoria comes the "S. O. S." The "Bonne" lying crippled in the local harbor is unable to send relief. Portsmouth bowlers lay wounded on the field of battle groping for light and air. The five men event, the first onslaught, was a total failure. The doubles worse, if possible. Now comes the singles and confirms the complete rout of the Old Home Guard.

One man, the captain, Billy Barron made one good bid. He made one individual score of 279 in his third attempt of the individuals which partly redeemed his teammates. Then his total for the three individual games is 631—very good.

But the most undisciplined out of all is the utter failure of the Times staff to receive one last word of encouragement or crumb of comfort from its admitted correspondent and field captain, Colonel Frank "Wide Awake" Sheridan. His report came after the doubles—but after the singles—oh, please refrain, the strain is becoming unbearable.

Mr. Sheridan made the flattering scores of 152, 144 and 158—maybe this explains.

Four of the six individuals who represented Portsmouth on the field of battle managed to break into the four hundred total class, one ventured a little daringly into the five hundred class and one was so audacious as to cross the Rubicon and snap up a six hundred total. Here is the coroner's report:

Schedule Is Held Back

(Chicago, March 30.)—Matters regarding the schedule of the American Association were further complicated today by the possibility that Toledo would take the place of Cleveland. LEIBOLD, CLEVELAND OUTFIELDER, IS MOST TEMPERAMENTAL PLAYER IN A. L.

NEMO LIEBOLD, THE CLEVELAND OUTFIELDER, IS REMARKABLY TEMPERAMENTAL. HE IS ALSO THE SMALLEST PLAYER IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE.

"Nemo" Liebold, the Cleveland outfielder, enjoys the rep of being one of the most temperamental of ball players. When in the proper mood Liebold is as fast a fielder as graces our national diversion. But when Nemo doesn't feel like playing he isn't worth a cent.

Will Book Many Games

Manager Devore is making arrangements for a number of fast exhibition games to be played before the season opens. RED LEGS ARE UP TO OLD TRICKS

The Reds are up to their old tricks. They are beating the life out of all the Southern league teams only to return home and make a poor showing against the National league teams. It really looks like the Reds have picked up two shuckers in Griffith and Wingo.

To Let Out Youngsters

Manager McGraw is going to turn 15 players adult in ten days. He says he has seen more promising youngsters this year than in a long time, but the player limit rule compels him to let a lot of them slide.

Tickets Are Distributed

(Chillicothe, March 30.)—The season ticket books have been distributed by the Chillicothe baseball club. These books contain 250 worth of tickets. The reason for this is on account of the schedule for the league not yet being made. Arrangements will be made by the management with the holders of these books for the additional games which may be played here.

CARUSO

World-famous Tenor, says:

"Tuxedo completely satisfies my tobacco taste. It is mild and has a delicious flavor. Most important of all, from a singer's standpoint, Tuxedo does not irritate my throat."

Caruso

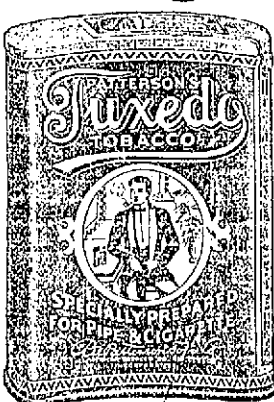

"Tuxedo Does Not Irritate My Throat"

The non-irritating quality of Tuxedo which Caruso praises is due to the original "Tuxedo Process" by which the tobacco is treated. This process refines the tobacco and absolutely removes all bite and sting.

Many thousands of men think they cannot smoke a pipe, for fear the tobacco might burn or parch their mouths. Tuxedo has done away with any such possibility. You can smoke Tuxedo all day long, without any irritation whatsoever—indeed, with increasing pleasure.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is made from rich, mild, fragrant Kentucky Burley—acknowledged to be the finest pipe-tobacco in the world—aged until it is pipe-perfect and smokes coolly and slowly.

You cut off an inch of inspiration and real joy every hour you stay away from Tuxedo. Because it's so good, so true, so delicious, so fragrant, its memory lingers every time your smoke-appetite gets tuned up.

Gravel and stone in the bladder are two of the greatest dangers to mankind. Neglect and abuse of the kidneys and urinary tracts are directly responsible for these conditions. At your time of life you must not take chances. If your kidneys do not properly filter out from your body the poisons which are accumulating every minute of the day, trouble is sure to follow. The acid poisoning, rheumatism, nervous disorders, skin disfigurement can all be traced straight to the kidneys and bladder. But gravel and stone in the bladder are the most painful symptoms of bad kidneys.

The best thing in the world for these troubles is GOLD MEDAL HAZLETT OIL, now put up in Capsules. For over two hundred years this standard, reliable medicine, has been a great boon to mankind. Thousands of physicians use it in their daily practice. What better recommendation could you ask? The capsules will filter and clarify your kidneys and urinary tracts so quickly you can hardly believe it. And at such a small cost. The imported genuine GOLD MEDAL Hazlett Oil Capsules are sold by druggists generally. Prices, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Your druggist will gladly refund the purchase price if they do not help you. But be sure to insist on GOLD MEDAL. They are the only genuine Hazlett Oil Capsules imported fresh every month from Holland, by the Genuine Hazlett Oil Mfg. Co., American Office, 194 Water St., New York City. All others are imitations.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60. Residence A-880.

Dear Dolly.—I have been going with a girl whom I liked very well. Recently she became angry because I repeated to her a remark a fellow, whom she seemed to like, said about her. Should I endeavor to effect a reconciliation?

Sure you should, Walter, and next time be careful what you say. Nobody likes a tattletale.

Dear Dolly.—On what day of the week did the 11th of March, 1887, come?

S. L. G.
Thursday.

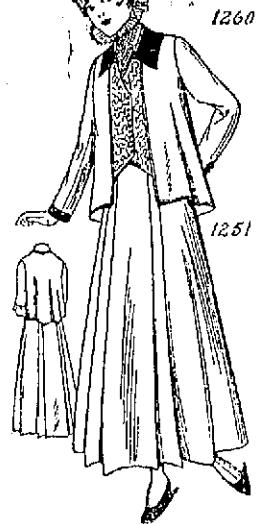

Dear Miss Wise.—I would like to ask a question that has been bothering me for some time, and I hope you will be kind enough to answer it. I am not asking it as a joke or to make little of your column, but a really and truly want to know what becomes of all the holes in postage stamps? It seems to me that Uncle Sam could find some use for these holes. It's a shame to let them go to waste, don't you think so, Dolly? And how many holes do you think are left after making stamps every day?

BUSINESS MAN.
The holes are shovelled into barrels and carried off to the city garbage dump in Washington, D. C. The Bureau of Engraving prints 12,000,000 stamps every year, this would mean a total of 252,000,000 holes. These holes would fill 468 barrels. Each barrel holds 538,463,538 holes, yet there aren't any holes in the barrels. If you would write to Uncle Sammy he might send you a barrel full of holes.

Dear Dolly.—What is a good odorless disinfectant, one that can be used daily without injuring anyone?

HOUSEWIFE.
I know of no odorless disinfectant. Lysol is perhaps the best liquid disinfectant. It can be purchased in any quantity you want at drug store. Sulphur burned in a house makes a good dry disinfectant.

Dear Dolly.—I met a boy a few months ago who was then going with a friend of mine. She has since turned him down and now he wants to go with me. I do not care for his company, and have told him as much, but he still hangs around. Would you have anything more to do with him?

EAST END GIRL.
No. If you only go with boys you admire you will be better off. Keep your standard high and you will attract the boys you want.

Dear Dolly.—I am 18 and keeping company with a boy of the same age. If I talk to other boys he gets real angry. What should I do?

MARIE.

I would talk to the other boys and pay no attention to his injured feelings.

Dear Dolly.—If I go to a party and do not get home until 11 o'clock, should I ask my escort in?

BLUE EYES.
No indeed, Blue Eyes.

Dear Dolly.—What is good to make one's face soft and white?

GERTIE.
Witch hazel and cold cream will keep it in good condition.

Dear Miss Wise.—Will lemon juice make the finger nails white? If so, how should it be used? What causes white spots on the finger nails?

SARA.

Lemon juice removes stain. Rub a piece of lemon on the finger nails and stained skin of the fingers. White spots come from bruises. They will disappear as the finger nail grows out.

Dear Dolly.—Do you consider such games as spin the pan and postoffice, immoral?

CITIZENS.
Not immoral, but cheap. They are not played at the best of parties. However, there are two ways of playing post office. One is a very nice game. Have mentioned it in this column several times.

Dear Dolly.—When a boy meets a girl at a social for the first time and would like to take her home when is it proper to ask her? Of course I don't want anyone else to beat me to her.

JOHNNY-ON-THE-SPOT.
Don't be in too big a hurry or she will think you are rather fresh or forward. About half an hour before time to go home you might turn the conversation in that direction, then ask her in an offhand way if she has company home. Girls as a rule, make arrangements for getting home safely before going to socials or other places of amusement.

Dear Dolly.—I am a young man and would like to have some pointers on how to carry on a conversation with a girl. At times I get awfully embarrassed and do not know what to say?

WALTER.
Why not let the girl do the talking, and practice being a good listener. Ten chances to one she has more to say than you any way.

Dear Dolly.—Should a young man who is engaged walk down or up street with another girl?

ENGAGED GIRL.
I don't see why not? Because a man is engaged is no reason why he should give up all his other friends.

Girlie.—Would advise you to have a professional clean and block your hat. I tried to clean one last summer and ruined it. Call me up and I'll tell you where you can have it done. You are not too old to wear your hair down your back. You could also wear it rolled low on the neck or in two braids wrapped around your head. Slippers would be all right, although it's a little early to wear them as yet. Maybe you could do with the shoes you have, until the weather warms up a bit, then get a pair of pumps.

Want-To-Know.—Your question does not come under my jurisdiction. Report the matter to the chief of police, or send them the same kind of a letter you sent me only sign your name to it.

Z.—'73.—Would advise you to let the "Kid" and his brute alone. They were probably too young to get married, but now that they are married, let them stay married and do not try to come between them. About chewing tobacco, every man has that privilege if he wants to exercise it.

SOCIETY

Attractive in all the appointments is the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Norris and Mr. Everett L. Wikoff, which was solemnized this evening at half-after five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Norris, on Twelfth street, where there were forty guests, including relatives and most intimate friends. The attendants were Miss Margaret Graf, who came up from Cincinnati for the wedding, and Mr. Willis Slagel, who acted as best man. The rooms were profusely decorated with palms, ferns and white carnations, the green and white color tone being used in all of the rooms. Miss Rose Wendelken played the wedding music with Mrs. J. E. Taper at the violin. Miss Lenora McNamara sang sweetly "I Love You Truly." To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the bride party advanced to the pretty improvised altar in the parlor, built of ferns and flowers, and with the delicate candle light the Methodist Episcopal ring ceremony was very impressive. Rev. C. Lloyd Stocker officiating. The minister led the way to the altar, followed by the groom and his best man. Next came the maid, Miss Graf, attired in a beautiful gown of pale green crepe material trimmed in handsome lace, and carrying an armful of Killarney roses. The handsome bride, on the arm of her father, met the group at the altar, forming a half circle. She was attired in an elegant gown of white bridal satin trimmed in rare old Mecklenburg lace. The wedding was out low in the neck and short sleeves, the skirt being finished with a long train. Her veil of tulle was caught to her hair with natural orange blossoms, sent to her by her brother, Mr. Charles Norris from Orlando, Florida. She carried a shower of bride roses and her only ornament was a delicate chain with lavaliers of diamonds and pearls, a gift from the groom. During the ceremony Miss Wendelken played "Love's Old Sweet Song" and during congratulations she played Tauschauer's Wedding March. The guests were invited to the dining-room, where a delicious two-course lunch was served by Miss Lenora McNamara, Miss Ruth Gray, Mrs. Louis Dunn and Miss May Zimicker. The tables were adorned in pink and white sweet peas, with a delicate touch of green and white. The favors were white carnations. The beautiful wedding cake was a gift from Mrs. Emma Graf and was very much appreciated by the bride and groom. Covers were laid at the bride's table for the bride and groom and their attendants, Miss Graf and Mr. Slagel, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Norris, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Wikoff. The bride and groom will slip away from their friends for a wedding trip of one week, after which they will return to Portsmouth and go to housekeeping at 1856 Logan street, where they will be at home to their friends after the first of May. The attractive bride only recently resigned her position as teacher in the Highland school, where she has taught for the past six years. The last day before leaving the school she was given a shower by the teachers of the building, with whom she was a great favorite. Mr. Wikoff, a fine young man, is traveling salesman for the Stockham company. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. The bride presented her lovely bouquet to her invalid sister, Miss Mary Norris. She wore a traveling suit of sand color, so fashionable this spring, with a hat of the same shade.

EDWARD W. HANLEY.

The following touching tribute is paid by Ex-Governor Cox, in his paper, the Dayton News, to Edward W. Hanley, chairman of the Democratic state committee, and men who knew Hanley, know every word of it and more, is true:

Edward W. Hanley is dead. Dayton will produce no bigger man, measured by the wonderful diversity of his talents. Born a poor boy with the limitations in opportunity that join to poverty, he enriched his mind in literature, history and philosophy—grounded himself thoroughly in the fundamentals of big business matters and became a useful, active and potential figure in the affairs of his city and state. These, in brief, are his achievements—and speak the man, his wonderful mind, his power of concentration, his patriotism.

There is an uncommon tragedy in his death in that every equipment of mind and body that nature gave him was conserved by prudence in living, simple habits, refined but democratic tastes and a practice early formed of seeking in abundant hours the peace, tranquility and happiness of his home. We hear of men burning the candle at both ends. In this respect men who will survive Mr. Hanley for years have lived generations more than he. His fight from the early day of boyhood throughout all the active scenes of his maturity, was so brave and successful, so prudent and judicious that once he came to comfort and fortune, it would seem that he was entitled to live long in the enjoyment of his own labor. What a grand old man he would have made! With the humor of his ancestors, the philosophy born of having faced the world and in a fair contest made it yield to him victory and prestige, with a love of his own city vibrating every fiber of his being, and with his inordinate powers of leadership, he would have continued to enrich the life of the community, and by his wise counsel helped it through the problems and perplexities that are to come. It was doubtless in the design of his Maker that one who had lived so well—so bravely, and so unselfishly, was entitled to the joys of the great hereafter, rather than the pleasures that appeal to finite senses.

I knew Mr. Hanley twenty years ago when the plans and ambitions of youth, more or less erratic and unstable, were presented to this counsellor friend, and through his trained mind they filtered, and in kindness, patience and forbearance, he yielded advice and gave co-operation that were determining factors in after life. He was a friend indeed. His mind and judgment, although balanced with a poise so conspicuously his leading trait, were yet moved in rare degree by the heart's throbs. His purse, his labors, the force of his great personality were never commensured by his friends. They were enlisted as soon as the smoke of battle was ascended. I have seen him in triumph and defeat—in the atmosphere of the harmony of two minds, in the spirited disputation of diverging views, and HE WAS A MAN ALWAYS.

He was a Jeffersonian Democrat, whose tendencies in political thought always led toward the interests of the great masses from which he came and with whom he continued even in the face of high position in the community, largely to live. The great sorrow of his life was to be misjudged at one time in the evanescence of political evolution, to be, by virtue of large corporate experience, out of tune with the pulse of the mass. He was born of the masses, remained with them and they will mourn his end. To his leadership more than all other contributing factors, was due the success of his party locally, and he was most influential in contributing to its prestige and victory in state contests.

A poet, the Irish sweet singer of his early days, he remained until his last hour the sweetheart of her he won long ago. The charm and gentleness of no woman ever inspired finer chivalry than was paid by this gallant courtier to the ideal enshrined in his affections.

The world will not know the measure of his charity, the scope of his benevolence, nor the legion that profited by his unselfish friendship, but many a throbbing heart, a tearful eye—yes many a prayer already on its way for the repose of his soul now—they are the silent tribute to his sympathy for others.

I sat beside his bed but a few days ago, when the grasp of hand brought a flood of memories and even though racked with disease and pain, the great mind asserted itself and we wandered again in reminiscence and anecdote through the old days. He was willing to go. Nature, that kind provider, had shown him the harbor of peace and tranquility and although he enjoyed the storms of life, he was ready to go into the shelter. He knew, that measured by his simple life, he was entitled to longer years, but with no bitterness, he accepted the decree.

Farewell, old friend—your memory will be a benediction to many of us. Peace to your ashes; sweetness to your sleep.

J. M. C.

Indefinite from the number to be seen on the streets now, if all the outlets from the city are closed this summer, when the full complement of autos is ready to run the police will have to toll them off in squads and designate particular days for each squad. There isn't going to be room enough in town to allow all of them to buzz around at the same hour.

ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

ONCE ON A TIME FIVE BOWLERS BOLD
WENT FORTH TO DO OR DIE—
THEY RODE TOWARD PEORIA
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

SAID THEY THAT OLD PRIZE MONEY WILL NEVER PASS US BY—
AND THEY RODE TOWARD PEORIA
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

JAS. I WENT TO SCHOOL
WITH ONE OF EM.

AND THE BOYS AT HOME GAZED PROUDLY
AS THE TRAVELERS PASSED THEM BY
ON THEIR WAY TOWARD PEORIA
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

ALL THOUGHT OF THE REFLECTED GLORY
ALL BOWLERS WOULD ENVY
WHEN THE TEAM CAME HOME FROM PEORIA
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

THEN CAME THE MIGHTY MOMENT—
THE TIME TO DO OR DIE—
TO THE BOYS WHO RODE TO PEORIA
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

(ORCHESTRA CHANGED TO BATTLE MUSIC HERE)

BOWLERS TO THE RIGHT OF THEM,
BOWLERS TO THE LEFT OF THEM,
BOWLED LIKE THUNDER—R-R-R—
CHARGED THEY THE TEN-PINS BARE,
WHIRLED THEY THEIR ARMS IN AIR,
BUT EVER LEFT STANDING THERE
PINS UN-NUMBERED.

HOW CAN THEIR GLORY FADE?
AND OH THE SCORE THEY MADE—
EVEN THE PINS WONDERED.
ALL CLEARLY TEMPTED FATE
AND ONE ROLLED TWENTYEIGHT
PLUS ONE HUNDRED.

WELL I'LL BE DARNED

WELL I'LL BE DARNED—

L' ENVOI (BIRGE)

THEN ALL THAT TEAM OF BOWLERS BOLD
COULD ONLY TURN AND SIGH A SIGH—
AND RIDE BACK FROM PEORIA,
ON THE PLAINS OF ILLINOI!

We thought when Przemyśl—call it Sheen-mist—fell our troubles would be over. But here a week afterwards are the Russians lying about how many guns and cannons captured there and the Austrians about how many were not.

Set one thing to the credit of this backward March—it has reduced the annual outflow of spring poetry.

No, there is no call for the city to start a feud with the N. & W. Also there is no need for my more stopping over on the part of the municipality to do something just because the road asks it.

Portsmouth pays three-fifths of the road taxes and from the average board of commissioners gets about three-thousandth consideration.

The effete east, that is the section about New York and Boston is taking on considerable optimism. Surely something good must be near on the way.

And just to think! In a week they'll be breaking ground for that traction line to Ironton.

TAKES SUPERINTENDENCY OF SCHOOLS

The following dispatch in the Watertown (N. D.) Public Opinion from Clark, S. D., is of interest locally, inasmuch as Prof. J. W. Ault is an old Scotch county boy, and taught school in this county for years:

"Supt. J. W. Ault, of the city schools, has accepted an offer to return to the superintendency of the Bryant schools. He was formerly located there coming here two years ago. The local board offered him a two year contract at $1800 a year, but Bryant made what was considered a more tempting offer and Mr. Ault accepted it. Supt. Ault has given the best of satisfaction here and is considered among the best superintendents in the state."

There was a man in our town invested all his wealth. With madly avaricious aim. To win the goal of wealth; And when the smoke he had attained.

Song
I am the soul of life,
Out of the poise and strife
Of sorrows, I rise
And color all the skies
With gold. I am the thrill
That wakens in the still
Pale souls that lie asleep,
Forgetting how to weep.
I have known pain, and yet
Full soon do I forget
In living, there appears
Joy's presence through the tears.
And those who know me best
Feel what I bring, unrest.

When They Face Each Other
A Boston man wants all the old bachelors and old maids arrayed before each other for mutual observation. We doubt that it would be possible to reconcile them. An old bachelor is more apt to be attracted by a girl who is too young to have much sense, and the old maid's sole hope is a widower who has not antipathy to her poodle. — Houston Post.

Animal Jingles FOR LITTLE FOLK

WHAT ARE YOU LIKE?

Can you think of an animal
That's any way like you?
Perhaps you growl when you are cross,
I wonder if you do!
Or do you growl when mother says,
"Come, let me comb your hair?"
For if you do, I am afraid
You're very like a Bear.

OR

Maybe you're the kind of child
Who's always looking out
For little things that people say
To get provoked about.
If you are always "bristling up"
Like this, I should incline
To think that you're a great deal like
A little Porcupine.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

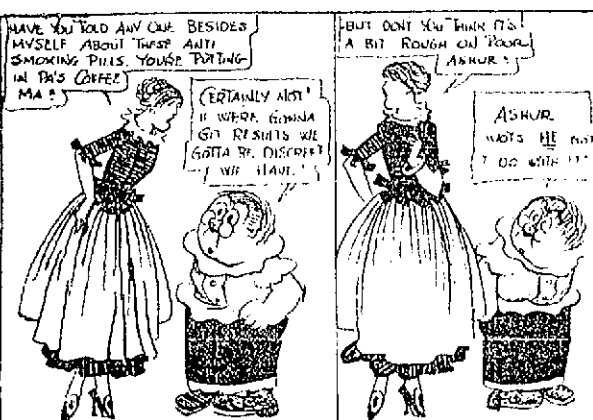

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or old headache, dizziness, your stomach sometimes in contest and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in uric acid, as it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot be pure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

CABLES MOVE SUBMARINE F-4 CLOSER TO SHORE

Washington, March 30.—Submarine F-4 sunk at the entrance to Honolulu harbor had been moved 300 feet toward shore by vessels with cables at 3 o'clock this morning, according to a message received today by Secretary Daniels from the commander of the first submarine division. The message gave no details.

150 DROWNED WHEN TWO STEAMERS ARE TORPEDOED

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF A GERMAN SUBMARINE

London, March 30.—Upwards of 150 lives were lost by the sinking of German submarines of the African mail steamer Paluba, and the British Aquila, bound from Liverpool for Lisbon, according to more complete details given out today.

The Paluba, which was torpedoed in St. George's channel Sunday afternoon, carried a crew of 60 and about 100 passengers, and of this total only 140 were rescued. Of these, eight died later from exposure.

The Aquila had a crew of 12 and three passengers, and of these 24 of the crew and all the passengers were lost.

In each case, on sighting the submarines, the captain tried to escape by putting on all speed possible, but the underwater craft, overtaking the steamers, showing that Germany now has some of her most modern submarines engaged in the blockade operations against England. Gave But Five Minutes To Take To Boats.

The captain of Paluba, who was one of those lost, was given five minutes to get his passengers and crew into the boats, but, according to the survivors, before this was possible a torpedo was fired, striking the engine-room and causing a terrible explosion. Many were killed and the steamer sank in ten minutes.

Travelers which happened to be in the vicinity rescued most of those who were saved; others got away in the boats, which were ready for launching and were quickly lowered when the order was given to abandon the ship.

FREE LOVE CULT COMES TO LIGHT IN YOUNG GIRL'S DEATH; ALLIANCE, O., AUTHORITIES PROBE "KINGDOM OF GOD" SECT

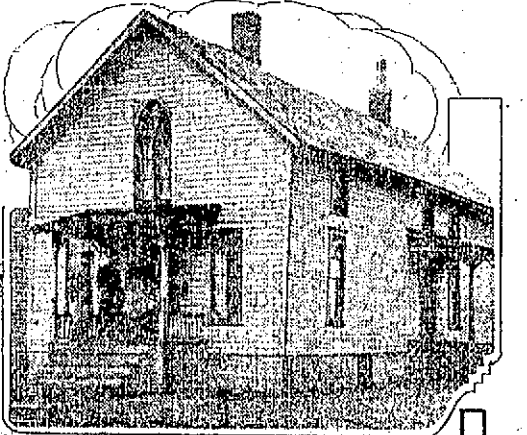

Miss Amy Tanner, home of the "Kingdom of God" sect in Alliance, O., Rev. P. A. George.

The "Kingdom of God," a religious sect of twelve members, which has a "brotherhood home" in Alliance, O., is being investigated by authorities of that city as the result of the death last week of Miss Amy G. Tanner, a nineteen-year-old girl convert, under circumstances which aroused the suspicions of the police. The Rev. P. A. George, "interpreter of the voice of God" and leader of the cult, is under arrest.

The investigation has brought out the fact that free love is one of the important tenets of the "Kingdom of God" sect.

Clearing of the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Tanner hinges on the official chemical analysis at Columbus of organs removed from the girl's body at the autopsy.

SAYS TURKISH DEFENSES HAVE PROVED EFFECTIVE

Bucharest, March 30.—(Via Paris)—Field Marshal von Der Goltz, the German military commander of Constantinople, interviewed by the Adversari, declared his defenses of the Dardanelles had proved more effective than had been expected and that he now would affirm that the allied fleet would not force a passage.

"We await a new attack without fear," the field marshal is reported to have asserted. "The more ships there are the better satisfied we shall be. We do not lack ammunition for Turkish factories supply us all we want. Turkish industry has been sufficiently developed to equip a fresh army of 500,000 which it will be easy to mobilize."

Constantinople is calm and the sultan still is in the Bosphorus palace. Enver Pasha, minister of war, is most optimistic and we are convinced we shall win. Field Marshal von Der Goltz has left Bucharest for Berlin.

Announcement that Field Marshal von Der Goltz had left Constantinople for Athens, Bulgaria, was made from Athens on March 26. His departure was believed to have an important bearing on the developments in the Balkan situation which is causing concern in Turkey. It is evident that he stopped in Bucharest on his way to Berlin after leaving Sofia.

BULGARIA'S CONTINUED NEUTRALITY SOUGHT BY GERMANY; OFFER TERMS

Paris, March 30.—The Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency declares he has received from diplomatic sources confirmation of the report that Field Marshal von Der Goltz has been authorized by Turkey to offer Bulgaria the Enos-Midia line as a new boundary in exchange for her continued neutrality in the war.

The first intimation that territorial concessions had been offered to Bulgaria by Turkey was contained in a dispatch from Sofia to the Exchange Telegraph company at London on March 27. The territory involved includes Adrianople, Kirk-Kilissah and other important towns.

WHO'LL LEND W. VIRGINIA SOME KALE?

Charleston, W. Va., March 30.—The first step on the part of officials to relieve the present dilemma in the state's finances resulting from the failure of the last legislature to enact sufficient tax laws, was taken here yesterday when State Auditor J. S. Darst and State Treasurer E. L. Long asked Attorney General A. A. Lilly for an opinion on the right of West Virginia through its officers to borrow money.

Bulgaria Takes A Hand

Geneva, March 30. (Via Paris)—Dispatches received here from Sofia state that Bulgaria is holding up shipments of German artillery and large quantities of ammunition destined for Constantinople.

MANY WOGERS ARE AFTER HIS HEART

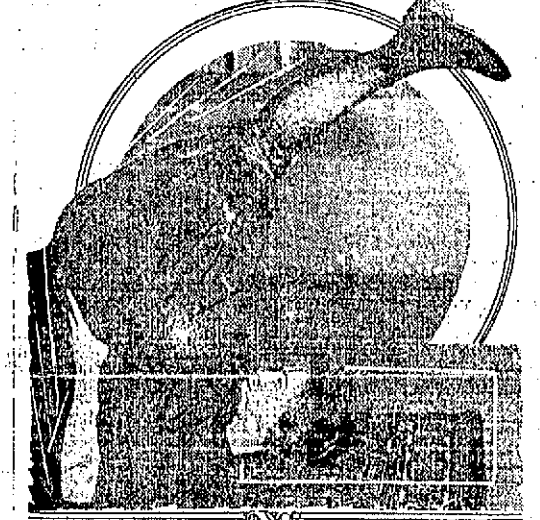

Dr. Hebron Claffin of Chicago, brother of Lady Cook of England, is scheduled to be married to Mrs. Laura Kaufman Whitbeck of Syracuse, N. Y., a widow of forty-four years. But his pastor, Dr. George V. VON KLUCK INCURS KAISER'S DISPLEASURE, WILL LOSE COMMAND

London, March 30.—General von Kluck, the German commander who led the advance into France, according to travelers from Berlin, was wounded while recklessly inspecting trenches at the most dangerous point on the line, after a stormy interview with Emperor William, says an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express. It is learned from the same source, that the opinion is expressed in Berlin that as the result of the accident the emperor will entrust the command of von Kluck's army to Prince Eitel Friedrich.

Announcement that General von Kluck had been wounded was contained in an official statement issued yesterday by the German war office. It was said his condition was not serious.

TELLS OF CHASE BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

Philadelphia, Pa., March 30.—A story of how he had been pursued for miles by a German submarine was told by Captain Tholander, of the Danish steamship Paris, which arrived here yesterday. The Paris came from Korsor to land a cargo for Copenhagen.

While off Lowestoft, England, in the North sea, a German submarine was sighted, said Captain Tholander. "For miles she pursued the Paris, which put on a full head of steam. It was not until a British torpedo boat came to the rescue that the German undersea craft gave up the chase."

AMERICANS ENDANGERED BY FIRING OVER LINE

Washington, March 30.—Three batteries of the Third field artillery were on their way today to Brownsville from San Antonio and a regiment of infantry was being held in readiness at Texas City to move there on a moment's notice. Orders to the troops had gone from the war department in response to the suggestion of Major General Huuston, commanding the American forces on the border, who has gone to Brownsville to assume command of the situation.

These precautions were deemed necessary to impress upon the commanders of the Mexican forces fighting at Matamoros that firing across the border, thus endangering American lives will not be permitted. Assurances had been given, however, by the Carranza and Villa agencies here that firing into the Texas city would not be allowed.

"RED CROSS" CALL COMES FROM PORTSMOUTH BOWLERS

Billy Barron Makes Big Score Of 279

What appeared, at first, to be only an "orderly retreat" for strategic reasons on the part of the flank of the Portsmouth bowling army, seems certain of a complete rout of the Portsmouth Ten Pin Zouaves on the alleys at Peoria, Illinois, where the local bowlers stormed the trenches of the A. B. C. records and prize money.

Instead of a slashing victory and medals won, as so confidently predicted and actually expected, the little army of ten pin sharpshooters, according to authentic reports, is lying mortally wounded and bleeding on the plains of Peoria. Peoria's alleys reeked by a hail of disappointment and defeat as the local gallants charged, sent them staggering back beneath the terrible onslaught. Instead of medals and spurs there is liable to be court martial and disarmament of swords and the loss of honorary stripes. From Peoria comes the "S. O. S." The "Bonne" lying crippled in the local harbor is unable to send relief. Portsmouth bowlers lay wounded on the field of battle groping for light and air. The five men event, the first onslaught, was a total failure. The doubles worse, if possible. Now comes the singles and confirms the complete rout of the Old Home Guard.

One man, the captain, Billy Barron made one good bid. He made one individual score of 279 in his third attempt of the individuals which partly redeemed his teammates. Then his total for the three individual games is 831—very good.

But the most unexpected cut of all is the utter failure of The Times staff to receive one last word of encouragement or crumb of comfort from its admired correspondent and field captain, Colonel Frank "Wide Awake" Sheridan. His report came after the doubles—but after the singles—oh, please refrain, the strain is becoming unbearable.

Mr. Sheridan made the flattering scores of 152, 144 and 108—maybe this explains.

Four of the six individuals who represented Portsmouth on the field of battle managed to break into the four hundred total class.

una ventured a little daringly into the five hundred class and one was so audacious as to cross the Rubicon and snap up a six hundred total. Here is the coroner's report:

Portsmouth—
Barron 158 194 297—831
Wanless 165 190 191—546
B. Prediger, 174 150 147—471

GRANEY IS LEADER

Jack Graneley is leading the Cleveland Indians with the war club on the exhibition trip, the fleet footed outfielder connecting with the pill for a mark of 300 in seven games. Jack only got one extra base hit, a double. Joe Jackson is a close second among the regulars, the actor grabbing off seventeen hits, including three home runs in thirty-five trips to the pan.

Moran To Get Chance

(Chillicothe Gazette.)
Manager Devore has replied to Herb Moran of the world champion Boston Braves, and informed him that he would give Moran's younger brother a chance to play here. Moran wrote to Devore as soon as he learned that Devore would manage the Chillicothe club and asked that his brother be given a trial here.

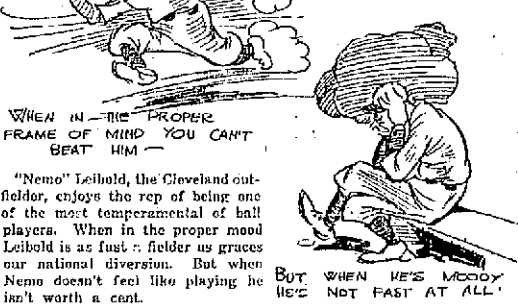

Schedule Is Held Back

Chicago, March 29.—Matters regarding the schedule of the American Association were further complicated today by the possibility that Toledo would take the place of Cleveland. Though President Chivington said he knew nothing of negotiations being carried on by President Johnson, of the American league, for the transfer of the Cleveland Association team to Toledo, he admitted that it might be made and that possibly it would take place before the opening of the season.

CUBANS DIPPY ABOUT BOXING

Bayam, March 29.—The task of educating the Cuban people to an understanding of boxing is now under full headway. Boxers are gathering here from all parts of the United States and bouts are scheduled for every night of the week. Windows and billboards are filled with cards and posters announcing the fights. Pugilists of all classes are in training here and as they parade the streets, clad in flannels or khaki, they are followed by crowds of boys and men. About the training camps groups of negro youths spend all day at sparring, many of them cleverly.

Will Book Many Games

Manager Devore is making arrangements for a number of fast exhibition games to be played before the season opens, says the Chillicothe News-Advertiser. He will probably get some major league clubs here if possible. In this way he will have a better chance to see what the applicants for positions can do and at the same time give the Chillicothe fans a chance to see some good ball early in the year.

To Let Out Youngsters

Manager McGraw is going to turn 15 players adrift in ten days. He says he has seen more promising youngsters this year than in a long time, but the player limit rule compels him to let a lot of them slide.

Tickets Are Distributed

Chillicothe, March 30.—The season ticket books have been distributed by the Chillicothe baseball club. Those books contain $24 worth of tickets. The reason for this is on account of the schedule for the league not yet being made. Arrangements will be made by the management with the holders of these books for the additional games which may be played here.

WHEELERSBURG WON WELL PLAYED GAME

The Wheelersburg team defeated Chillicothe in a well played game of baseball Sunday by a score of 8 to 4. Haines and Burke did the heavy work for Wheelersburg while O. C. Conley, Smith and Radman did the pitching for Chillicothe with C. Conley at the receiving end.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS MAY BE REOPENED

Chicago, March 30.—Only a representative committee, with full authority from organized ball can re-open peace negotiations with the Federal league, according to President Gilmore, who returned today from the meeting of the organization in New York. There precluded him a story that an intermediary had attempted to bring the Federals and organized baseball together in the interest of peace, but President Gilmore denied knowledge of any such move.

The New Havens, of New Haven, were second with 2,892, and Lieber's Gold Medals of Indianapolis third with 2,848.

Seventy-five two-men teams and 151 bowlers in the individuals made up today's program. H. Allen and R. Allen of Detroit, are leading in the doubles with 1,297.

CARUSO

World-famous Tenor, says:

"Tuxedo completely satisfies my tobacco taste. It is mild and has a delicious flavor. Most important of all, from a singer's standpoint, Tuxedo does not irritate my throat."

Enrico Caruso

"Tuxedo Does Not Irritate My Throat"

The non-irritating quality of Tuxedo which Caruso praises is due to the original "Tuxedo Process" by which the tobacco is treated. This process refines the tobacco and absolutely removes all bite and sting.

Many thousands of men think they cannot smoke a pipe, for fear the tobacco might burn or parch their mouths. Tuxedo has done away with any such possibility. You can smoke Tuxedo all day long, without any irritation whatsoever—indeed, with increasing pleasure.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is made from rich, mild, fragrant Kentucky Burley—acknowledged to be the finest pipe-tobacco in the world—aged until it is pipe-perfect and smokes coolly and slowly.

You cut off an inch of inspiration and real joy every hour you stay away from Tuxedo. Because it's so good, so true, so delicious, so fragrant, its memory lingers every time your smoke-appetite gets tuned up.

EDWARD W. HANLEY.

The following touching tribute is paid by Ex-Governor Cox, in his paper, the Dayton News, to Edward W. Hanley, chairman of the Democratic state committee, and men who knew Hanley, know every word of it and more, is true:

Edward W. Hanley is dead. Dayton will produce no bigger man, measured by the wonderful diversity of his talents. Born a poor boy with the limitations in opportunity that join to poverty, he enriched his mind in literature, history and philosophy—grounded himself thoroughly in the fundamentals of big business matters and became a useful, active and potential figure in the affairs of his city and state. These, in brief, are his achievements—and speak the man, his wonderful mind, his power of concentration, his patriotism.

There is an uncommon tragedy in his death in that every equipment of mind and body that nature gave him was conserved by prudence in living, simple habits, refined but democratic tastes and a practice early formed of seeking in abundant hours the peace, tranquility and happiness of his home. We hear of men burning the candle at both ends. In this respect men who will survive Mr. Hanley for years have lived generations more than he. His fight from the early day of boyhood throughout all the active scenes of his maturity, was so brave and successful, so prudent and judicious that once he came to comfort and fortune, it would seem that he was entitled to live long in the enjoyment of his own labor. What a grand old man he would have made! With the humor of his ancestors, the philosophy born of having faced the world and in a fair contest made it yield to him victory and prestige, with a love of his own city vibrating every fiber of his being, and with his inordinate powers of leadership, he would have continued to enrich the life of the community, and by his wise counsel helped it through the problems and perplexities that are to come. It was doubtless in the design of his Maker that one who had lived so well—so bravely, and so unselfishly, was entitled to the joys of the great hereafter, rather than the pleasures that appeal to finite senses.

I knew Mr. Hanley twenty years ago when the plans and ambitions of youth, more or less erratic and unstable, were presented to this counsellor friend, and through his trained mind they filtered, and in kindness, patience and forbearance, he yielded advice and gave co-operation that were determining factors in after life. He was a friend indeed. His mind and judgment, although balanced with a poise so conspicuously his leading trait, were yet moved in rare degree by the heart's throbs. His purse, his labors, the force of his great personality were never commended by his friends. They were enlisted as soon as the smoke of battle was sent. I have seen him in triumph and defeat—in the atmosphere of the harmony of two minds, in the spirited disputation of diverging views, and HE WAS A MAN ALWAYS.

He was a Jeffersonian Democrat, whose tendencies in political thought always led toward the interests of the great masses from which he came and with whom he continued even in the face of high position in the community, largely to live. The great sorrow of his life was to be misjudged at one time in the evanescence of political evolution, to be, by virtue of large corporate experience, out of tune with the pulse of the mass. He was horn of the masses, remained with them and they will mourn his end. To his leadership more than all other contributing factors, was due the success of his party locally, and he was most influential in contributing to its prestige and victory in state contests.

A poet, the Irish sweet singer of his early days, he remained until his last hour the sweetheart of her he won long ago. The charm and queenliness of no woman ever inspired finer chivalry than was paid by this gallant cavalier to the ideal enshrined in his affections.

The world will not know the measure of his charity, the scope of his benevolence, nor the legion that profited by his unselfish friendship, but many a throbbing heart, a tearful eye—yes many a prayer already on its way for the repose of his soul now—they are the silent tribute to his sympathy for others.

I sat beside his bed but a few days ago, when the grasp of hand brought a flood of memories and even though racked with disease and pain, the great mind asserted itself and we wandered again in reminiscence and anecdote through the old days. He was willing to go. Nature, that kind provider, had shown him the harbor of peace and tranquility and although he enjoyed the stories of life, he was ready to go into the shelter. He knew, that measured by his simple life, he was entitled to longer years, but with no bitterness, he accepted the decree.

Farewell, old friend—your memory will be a benediction to many of us. Peace to your ashes; sweetness to your sleep.

J. M. C.

Judging from the number to be seen on the streets now, if all the outlets from the city are closed this summer, when the full complement of autos is ready to run the police will have to toll them off in squads and designate particular days for each squad. There isn't going to be room enough in town to allow all of them to buzz around at the same hour.

We thought when Przemysl—call it Shean-mis—fell our troubles would be over. But here a week afterwards are the Russians lying about how many guns and cannons captured there and the Austrians about how many were not.

Set one thing to the credit of this backward March—it has reduced the annual outflow of spring poetry.

No; there is no end for the city to start a feud with the N. & W. Also there is no need for any more stopping over on the part of the municipality to do something just because the road asks it.

Portsmouth pays three-fifths of the road-taxes and from the average board of commissioners gets about three-thousandth consideration.

The effete east, that is the section about New York and Boston is taking on considerable optimism. Surely something good must be near on the way.

And just to think! In a week they'll be breaking ground for that traction line to Ironton.

TAKES SUPERINTENDENCY OF SCHOOLS

The following dispatch in the Waterstown (S. D.) Public Opinion from Clark, S. D., is of interest locally, inasmuch as Prof. J. W. Ault is an old Scioto county boy, and taught school in this county for years:

"Supt. J. W. Ault, of the city schools, has accepted an offer to return to the superintendency of the Bryant schools. He was formerly located there coming here two years ago. The local board offered him a two year contract at $1800 a year, but Bryant made what was considered a more tempting offer and Mr. Ault accepted it. Supt. Ault has given the best of satisfaction here and is considered among the best superintendents in the state."

A Man In Our Town
There was a man in our town

Song
I am the soul of life,
Out of the poise and strife
Of sorrows, I rise
And color all the skies
With gold. I am the thrill
That wakens in the still
Pale souls that lie asleep,
Forgetting how to weep.
I have known pain, and yet
Full soon do I forget
In living, there appears
Joy's presence through the tears.
And those who know me best
Feel what I bring, unrest.

When They Face Each Other
A Boston man wants all the old bachelors and old maids arrayed before one another for mutual observation. We doubt that it would be possible to reconcile them. An old bachelor is more apt to be attracted by a girl who is too young to have much sense, and the old maid's sole hope is a widower who has not antipathy to her poodle. —Houston Post.

Animal Jingles

WHAT ARE YOU LIKE?

Can you think of an animal
That's any way like you?
Perhaps you growl when you are cross,
I wonder if you do!
Or do you growl when mother says,
"Come, let me comb your hair?"
For if you do, I am afraid
You're very like a Bear.

OR

Maybe you're the kind of child
Who's always looking out
For little things that people say
To get provoked about.
If you are always "bristling up"
Like this, I should incline
To think that you're a great deal like
A little Porcupine.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

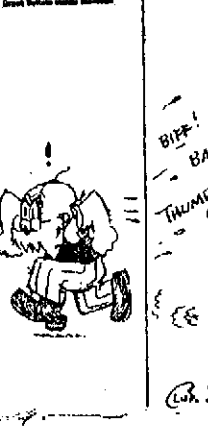

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally. Says a noted authority who tells that meat forms uric acid which ultimately paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and, weakened, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful after-dinner lithia-water drink.

WORK IS BEGUN ON THE STEEL PLANT ADDITION

PLANT SECURED BY BOARD OF TRADE IS TO DOUBLE CAPACITY

So successful has been the galvanizing department of the Whitaker-Glessner Company, that the board of trade has secured the plant in New Boston and which was placed in operation a few months ago, that this firm has completed arrangements to practically double the capacity of this department, and work started Monday on the addition.

The Whitaker-Glessner Company has awarded a contract to the Pittsburgh Construction Company for the building of an addition to the galvanizing plant. It will be 500 by 100 feet and will extend from Ohio avenue to West avenue. It is one of the largest contracts awarded by this company in recent years and coming at this particular time when few plants are in operation, it alone awarding a mammoth contract, it will be learned of with much pleasure. It shows the real progressive spirit of those at the head of the company, which is operating one of the most magnificently equipped steel plants in the country.

Work has been started on the foundation of the new addition, which will be tacked on the west end of the present galvanizing department. This work will be done by the Whitaker-Glessner Company, and under their personal supervision. The Pittsburgh Construction Company will put up the building proper.

It will be recalled that the ground on which the present galvanizing plant stands was donated to the firm by the Board of Trade. It was erected in accordance with stipulations made by the Board of Trade when the ground was purchased and later turned over to the company.

The gift has soon borne golden fruit as the new addition will not only double the firm's capacity, but it will give it one of the largest and most modernly equipped plants of this character in the United States. Necessarily with its completion the working force of skilled mechanics will be vastly increased. This department of the plant has been practically being up since placed in operation, and with an immense addition added to it will be a model of its kind.

The steel plant is working steadily in practically every department and it is said will continue that way for at least three weeks.

Will Call Meetings Of Deputy Assessors

Columbus, March 30.—Orders to district tax assessors were being prepared in the state tax commission's office today asking that meetings of all deputy district assessors who work in wards and townships, be called for next Saturday. Officially no attention was paid by the tax commission to the prospective fate of the Beidler bill, which will come up for final consideration on conference committee report in both houses of the legislature tomorrow.

Neither was the tax commission giving any heed to reports that arrangements have been made by the Democratic state organization for wholesale resignations of Democratic district tax assessors for the sake of embarrassing the Republican administration.

$40,000 FOR ONE GUILTY, ONE FREE FARM

One of the largest farm deals in this vicinity for some time past was consummated late Monday afternoon when George Davis purchased the Joe Fulton farm adjoining the Davis farm on the north, 7 miles up the valley from Portsmouth, for $40,000.

The deal was peacefully closed a week ago but the papers were not fully signed up until Monday. The newly acquired land gives Mr. Davis a total of 1275 acres of agricultural land in the scenic bottom west of Chillicothe pike.

Mr. Fulton, who is a retired banker of Columbus, formerly associated with Major John W. Overturn in the old Citizens Savings Bank here years ago, came here two weeks ago with a view to disposing of the farm which he bought to his wife, now an invalid.

The Fulton farm was a one-third tract of the original farm of Charles Davis, a brother of the late George Davis, Sr. The farm had been divided among three daughters, Mrs. Charles Nichols, Mrs. E. Gates and Mrs. Fulton, L. E. Smith purchased the latter farm some years ago and in turn sold it to the Haycocks boys.

SAYS BIG TRUSTS ENDANGER LIBERTY

Washington, March 30.—The government's brief in the anti-trust suit to dissolve the International Harvester company was filed today in the supreme court.

It is largely directed toward combating the arguments advanced in the company's brief filed in support of its appeal after the district court for Minnesota had declared it a combination in restraint of trade and ordered its dissolution.

"If defendant's argument prevails," says the government brief, "if corporate combinations, however comprehensive, do not come within the purview of the act unless and only so far as they demonstrably 'abuse' their power, the inevitable result will be the removal of that great rush toward concentration which proceeded with ever accelerating rapidity until checked by the decision of this court in the North securities case."

Super-Combination of Metal Would Be Possible

"If makers of harvesting machinery may unite as here, why may not makers of every other species of machinery do likewise? And why may not all these lesser combinations be integrated into one super-combination of all the metal working industries?"

"What would prevent, indeed, the creation of combinations with power to control the market for every necessary of life—food, coal, oil, metal, textile, fabrics, etc.—or alliances between all these combinations under the control of a few great masters of industry?"

"The desire for promoters profits, the desire to escape from the pressure of competition, the natural gravitation of power into the hands of the powerful, and the desire for more power which great power engenders—these motives would still be adequate to produce such concentration, even assuming that prices, etc., could be rigidly controlled."

New Phones

The street railway company has a force of men putting in new telephones on their line between New Boston and Sciotoville.

OBITUARY

Dr. W. E. Nichols

Stricken with heart trouble at 7 o'clock Monday night, Dr. W. E. Nichols, a well known practicing physician of Fullerton, and who had been located there nine years, was a corpse two hours later, passing away at 9 o'clock. Dr. Nichols apparently was in his usual good health Monday, and the news of his very sudden death came as a distinct shock to relatives and his many friends. Drs. M. W. Meadows, A. E. Bryson and E. F. Bennett, who were summoned to the Nichols home Monday night, pronounced death due to heart trouble. When Dr. Meadows reached the home he found Dr. Nichols a desperately sick man, and employed heroic measures to save his life. His heart was beating only faintly and death was inevitable unless his heart action could be stimulated without delay. Despite the efforts of the physicians Dr. Nichols became worse and soon passed away. Dr. J. S. Rardin, of this city, was summoned, but Dr. Nichols died before he reached the home.

Dr. Nichols complained of having a pain around his heart Monday and toward evening, when it grew worse, he was forced to take to bed. The news of his death last night caused profound sorrow to pervade Fullerton, where he was known and respected by everybody. Dr. Nichols was 39 years old and was a son of James Gilbert Nichols and Mrs. Martha Nichols, who reside at Lond, Ky., which is located above Tyeart. He is also survived by his faithful wife, Mrs. Mildred Nichols, and one daughter, Miss Nettie Nichols, aged 11, and two brothers and eight sisters.

Dr. Nichols was a member of the Masonic Lodge of Gilead and was a member of the Woodmen of the World. He attended school in Lexington and later on graduated from a medical school in Cincinnati.

Adam Owey

Adam Owey, aged 83, widely known mill man, died at about 6:30 o'clock last night at his home at the corner of Fourth and Park avenues, after an illness due to bronchial trouble, from which he has been suffering since last November, says the Ironton Irontonian. The advanced age of the deceased threw the balance in favor of the Grim Reaper. Mr. Owey became hostler in December and his health was sapped gradually until the end came peacefully last evening.

The deceased was born near New Castle, Pa., where a brother and two sisters now reside. He later moved to Wheeling and from that city moved to Ironton more than a half century ago. He entered the mill here and was one of the first stockholders in Belfont Nail Mill, having been manager of the village department. His wife, formerly Miss Catherine Catfield, survives, together with the following children: William H. Joseph, Mrs. William Teig and Mrs. Zora Sharp. One son, Charles, died several years ago.

WAS RECALLED FROM BERLIN

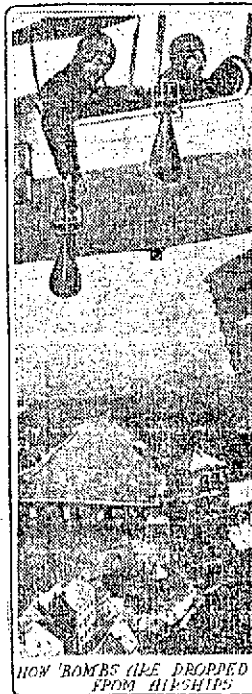

Major Robert Langhorne

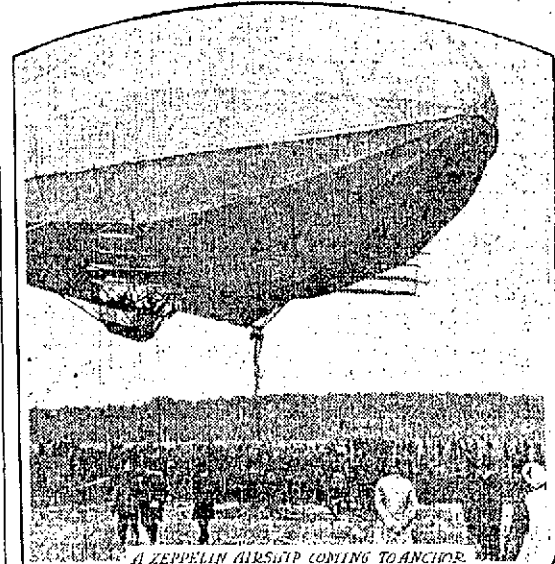

Causing all kinds of gossip, the recall of Major Langhorne from the Berlin embassy appears to have all the elements of a diplomatic mystery. The sending of fake messages over his signature from German fields of action may be the solution, and there may be other explanations. The government at Washington has so far been able to keep the lid down of this incident, but a day or a week may bring about a sensational revelation.

Mrs. A. Z. Blair continues to recover steadily from her recent operation for appendicitis.

HOW ZEPPELINES ATTACK A CITY

HOW BOMBS ARE DROPPED FROM AIRSHIPS

A ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP COMING TO ANCHOR

The flight of Zeppelin airships as an aid to strategy, the Zeppelin's worth has been proved, but it has not yet shown its value as an engine of destructive warfare. The bombs used do not appear to be effective, though their shortcomings are probably due to the inexperience of air soldiers in directing fire at a city below.
